

Our social responsibility

Stopping child labor

Our social responsibility

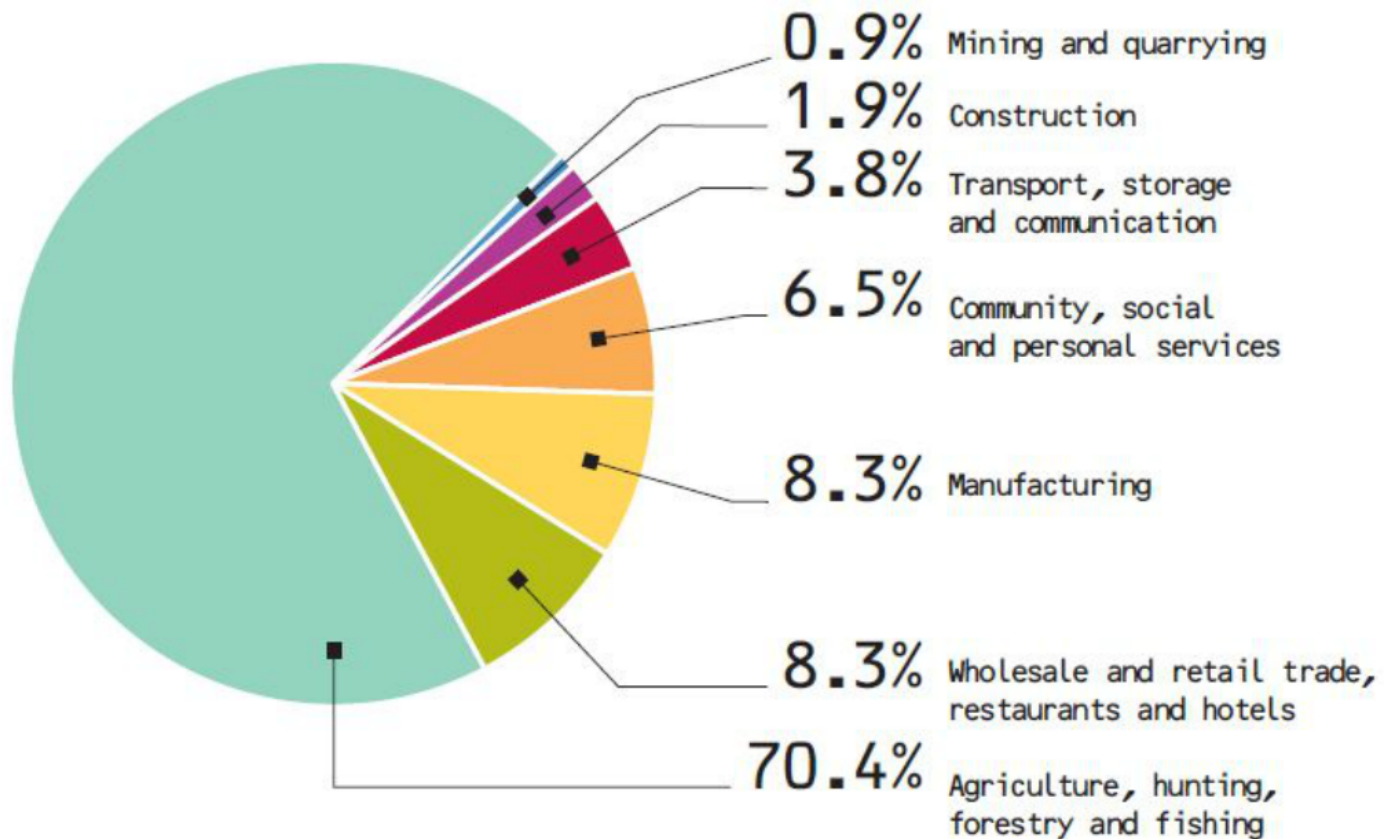

Stopping child labor

Our social responsibility

Stopping child labor

20.8 million children in manufacturing goods

Kids as young as 5 years old

Textile mills in India:

Girls cheated into exploitative employment schemes to save up for dowries

(Based on reports by SOMO and the India Committee of the Netherlands)

Cotton seed production in India:

Young girls exploited because of their agile fingers

(Based on publications by the India Committee of the Netherlands)

"We moving in the right direction, Since 2000, there were almost 78 million fewer child laborers at the end of this period than at the beginning, a reduction of almost a third. The fall in girls in child labor was particularly pronounced – in the period 2000-2012 there was a reduction of 40 per cent in the number of girls child laborers as compared to 25 per cent for boys."

-International Labour Organization

Lets keep moving in the right direction

Make sure your suppliers are not cheating the system

Work with Asia Textile Inspections where we offer a free social/ethical audit every time our client orders a factory audit

YOU can make the difference

We are willing to do our part, you should do yours.

We here at Asia Textile Inspections expect to make the world a better place one factory at a time

www.asiatextileinspections.com

Our social responsibility

Stopping child labor